

Ludmil Angelov

Ludmil Angelov has won prizes and distinctions at many international competitions, as S. Obretenov (Bulgaria, 1972), Virtuosi di Musica per Pianoforte (Czechoslovakia, 1973), Senigallia (Italy, 1976), F.Chopin (Poland, 1985), Palm Beach (USA, 1990), World Piano Masters (Monte-Carlo, 1994), and Piano Masters Tour (France and Monte-Carlo, 1997).

Having embarked upon an international career, he has been to all European countries, USA, South America, Hong Kong, Korea and Taiwan, appearing in recitals, chamber music concerts and as a soloist with many major orchestras, including the Covent Garden Orchestra, Monte-Carlo Philharmonic Orchestra, Berliner Sinfonieorchester, Schleswig-Holstein Sinfonieorchester, Russian State Symphony Orchestra, Russian Radio Symphony Orchestra, Moscow Symphony Orchestra, Flemish Radio Orchestra, European Masters Orchestra, Orchestre Philharmonique de Montpellier, Orchestre Philharmonique de Marseille, Orchestre Lamoureux, Orquesta Nacional de España, Orquesta Sinfónica de Madrid, Orquesta Sinfónica de RTV Española, Orquesta Ciudad de Granada, Lithuanian State Symphony Orchestra, Athens State Orchestra, Sofia Philharmonic, Bulgarian Radio Symphony Orchestra, etc. conducted by R. Milanov, L. Foster, J. DePreist, J.-B. Pommier, G. Pehlivanian, M. Andreae, F. Glushchenko, J. Pons, G. Schneider, Y. Sado, etc.

Ludmil Angelov has recorded for RCA, Pentatone Classics, Gega New, France Classique, Subi Classics or Toccata. His CD recording of Chopin's Complete Rondos & Variations has been awarded with Grand Prix du Disque Chopin by the International Chopin Institute of Warsaw.