

IMAGINARIUM ENSEMBLE – ENRICO ONOFRI

Founded and directed by Enrico Onofri, Imaginarium (Imaginarium: the place of images) brings together a group of musicians who all play with leading early music ensembles.

In 2006, imaginarium released with great success their CD La voce nel violino, dedicated to the Italian early baroque repertoire for violin and in 2010, a CD dedicated to the Vivaldi's violin solo onatas, including the celebrated La Follia.

Imaginarium launches in 2013 its international release Devil's Trill (Tartini, Veracini, Mossi, Bonporti), and in 2014 the complete recording of Corelli's Op.V violin sonatas, by label Passacaille.

Imaginarium is a variable geometry ensemble, which can perform from trio to the small orchestra. Among its principal members: Riccardo Doni (harpsichordist and organist of Il Giardino Armonico), Alessandro Palmeri (cello), Alessandro Tampieri (violinist, concertmaster of Accademia Bizantina), and Enrico Onofri (Violonist and conductor).
